

CODE OF CONDUCT: PLAYERS

It is a privilege to be a part of the United States Soccer Federation, United States Youth Soccer Association, Kentucky Youth Soccer Association, and Oldham Youth Soccer. My action shall always reflection credit upon these organizations and their affiliates.

Players play soccer to have fun, to learn and develop a passion for the game as well as to improve their skills. Players have a responsibility to their team, coach and soccer organization. They are representative of the club as well as the team, coach, parents and the community. Players must maintain a high level of sportsmanship and fair play. Players must have respect for their coach, opponents and the authority of the referee and his/her assistance's.

Players will play within the laws of the game and spirit of the game.

Players are expected to be on time and prepared for matches and training sessions.

Players will display self-control in all situations and will not use foul or abusive language at any time before, during or after a match or training session.

Players shall train and play to the best of their ability, have a positive attitude and encourage other to do the same.

Players will show respect towards the referee and his/her assistants as well as towards the opponents. They will not harass, abuse or berate a referee for any reason.

Players selected to participate in the United States Youth Soccer Olympic Development Program at any level should give preference to scheduled ODP activities over all other team games or other team activities.
